AFCC 2023 Programme Booklet: Five Different Covers

This year, AFCC features five different programme booklet covers created by five Vietnamese illustrators. These works were chosen to show the dynamism of Vietnamese children's book illustrations and the talents within the field.

Finding Mother and Other Folk Tales

Written by Nguyen Huy Tuong
Illustrated by Rong Pham

Finding Mother and Other Folk Tales reflects the interest in classic Vietnamese children's stories by contemporary Vietnamese illustrators. Finding Mother is regarded as one of the best children's stories by Nguyen Huy Tuong, founder of Kim Dong Publishing House.

Saving Sorya: Chang and the Sun Bear

Written by Trang Nguyen
Illustrated by Jeet Zdung

Saving Sorya: Chang and the Sun Bear is part of a Vietnamese graphic novel series that has resonated well with audiences and made its mark in the global children's book market. The book has been published in more than 10 countries and received awards in the UK and US.

The Diary of a Cricket

Written by To Hoai
Illustrated by Ta Huy Long

The Diary of a Cricket is a well-loved classic children's story from Vietnam. Its charming countryside world with swamps, grass, trees and insects has touched readers, young and old, across generations.

The Best Summer Party Ever!

Written by Le Thi Nhu Thuy and Crabit
Kidbooks team
Illustrated by Linh Luong

The Best Summer Party Ever! is part of the series Generation Equality – Fairy Tales on Gender Equality, the first modern fairy tale on book series for children published in Vietnam on gender equality.

The Flute Player

A painting by Nguyen Quang Thieu

Nguyen Quang Thieu's inspiration for The Flute Player came from a chance encounter with a blind musician at Ha Dong town on an autumn morning. Thieu writes: "He took a step back toward the red-leaf Indian-almond tree. Underneath the shade of the tree's red leaves, and in the autumn wind blowing through town, he picked up his flute, and music came to me as if it was the first time I had ever heard music."

Message from the Chairperson

Welcome to the 14th edition of the Asian Festival of Children's Content (AFCC)!

It is with the utmost pleasure that we welcome the return of AFCC as a fully in-person event after three years. As we adapt to these unpredictable and challenging times, it is imperative that we remember the lessons we learned over the past few years. We should continually strive to improve ourselves to become better – in mind, body and spirit. That is why for this year's AFCC, we have chosen the theme "Play!" to celebrate the childlike sense of delight and curiosity that resides within each of us.

This year's programmes are centred on the festival's concept of learning through play by engaging the five senses. Our programmes will explore the multiple ways one can engage in creative expression through fun and play: From exploring the use of games in teaching and learning of languages to delving into word and genre play.

In addition, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of diplomatic relations between Vietnam and Singapore in 2023, we are delighted to welcome Vietnam as this year's Country of Focus (COF). Through our partnership with the Vietnam Publishers Association (VPA), the COF programmes will highlight the rich history of children's literature in the country and bring to the forefront some of its notable works and talents.

To further boost intercultural understanding between the two countries as well as our translation efforts, we have also embarked on a co-translation book project together. Five children's book titles from Singapore and Vietnam have been selected to be translated into Vietnamese and English respectively. These books will be distributed for free to children in local communities through their reading initiatives.

Finally, on behalf of SBC, I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the National Library Board for providing the home for AFCC all these years. I would also like to thank all our Programme Committee members, partners, donors, supporters and volunteers for their unwavering support. Their generous contributions have played a vital role in the development and growth of AFCC over the years, enabling it to thrive and reach new heights.

I wish all of you a most enjoyable and playful experience at AFCC 2023!

Singapore Book Council

Message from the Chief Executive Officer, National Library Board

My heartiest congratulations to the Singapore Book Council (SBC) on the launch of the 14th Asian Festival of Children's Content (AFCC).

As the home of the festival since 2014, the National Library Board (NLB) is happy to host the festival again. We are excited to welcome everyone back, in person, to enjoy the programmes, and meet like-minded new friends who would love discovering Asian Children's Literature.

This year's AFCC, themed "Play!", explores a fundamental aspect of childhood where opportunities for learning and self-discovery often emerge through play. Over the next few days and through 70 programmes, we will get to meet with more than 100 writers and speakers from Singapore and around the world to explore the different dimensions of "Play".

As part of NLB's Libraries and Archives Blueprint (LAB25), we aim to create a vibrant Learning Marketplace for all ages to learn and discover. Through our partnership with SBC in AFCC, we are glad to further the goal of continual learning through the promotion and development of books and stories for our children.

We wish SBC every success in their efforts, and that everyone has an enriching festival through Play!

Message from the Executive Director

A very warm and excited welcome to the 2023 Asian Festival of Children's Content – our first fully in-person festival after three years!

It is an understatement to say that we are thrilled to be finally hosting an in-person festival after three years of virtual and hybrid editions. We hope that this event will be a source of inspiration and joy for all of us.

The theme of this year's festival is "Play!" We believe that play is the spark for creativity and imagination – for children as well as adults. Play allows us to explore, experiment, and learn in a fun and engaging way. As we gather writers, illustrators, translators, educators, publishers and all participants together again, we hope this sense of play will enable us to share our creative practice, generate more ideas, and explore collaborations that will expand and enrich our own work.

We have lined up more than 100 programmes over four days, including both conference and public programmes, that will look at various facets of play. From crafting picture books using different materials to unleashing the power of poetry; from tinkling with A.I. tools to strengthening bonds through intergenerational storytelling – the festival aims to engage your senses to stimulate and inspire you.

Furthermore, we will be delving into hot-button topics such as the impact of ChatGPT on publishing and translation; and how to make the arts and books more accessible. We hope that all these discussions will shed light on the latest developments and challenges in the industry.

We are excited to showcase Vietnam as the Country of Focus (COF) this year. In addition to featuring the country's best writers as well as illustrators in a special Book Illustrators Gallery (BIG) exhibition, we will also be promoting a deeper cross-cultural understanding through the translation of selected children's books from both countries. We hope that the COF Vietnam programmes will give you a glimpse into the creativity and diversity of the country.

Last but not least, the popular AFCC Book Fair and BIG exhibition will be back. The public can discover new and exciting books from Asia and beyond, while families and children can take part in many free events, including storytelling sessions, performances and book launches.

All these programmes and more await you at AFCC 2023. We invite you to take the time to explore and have fun, make new friends and reconnect with old ones. It's time to Play!

Have a wonderful festival!

Support the Singapore Book Council

Singapore Book Council turns 55 this year and we need your help more than ever! We need your support to bring Singapore literature (Sing Lit) to even more communities to connect people and enrich our cultural ties.

Sing Lit gives us the opportunity to read diverse stories about home, and meet different characters whom we can relate to. Sing Lit offers us a window to glimpse into the lives of many communities, including the minority and often silent ones. Their stories and perspectives – from both young and old – encourage us to learn about one another, fostering greater empathy and understanding in our multicultural, multilingual society.

As we open a new chapter in our journey, we rely on your generous support to help us continue advocating for Sing Lit, nurturing writers and cultivating a love for books and reading. Find out more about our programmes on our website bookcouncil.sg.

All qualifying donations will enjoy a 250% tax deduction. Cash donations will also be eligible for dollar-for-dollar matching from the Cultural Matching Fund (CMF), which means your donation doubles in value.

You may contribute on our Giving.SG donation page:

BIG COF Việt Nam Curator's Note

In this essay, Pham Thai Hoai Anh discusses the selected works for the BIG COF Vietnam exhibition.

The works selected as key visuals for AFCC 2023 are all works with their own impressions showing the dynamism of Vietnamese illustrators and the promising development of the Vietnamese children's book illustration industry.

Into garden, to pick up sunbeams written by Nguyen The Hoang Linh, illustrated by Nguyen Thanh Vu, is a self-published poetry book by crowd funding but has achieved a large number of copies. Impressed with the love of a large number of readers. The innocent, emotional and fancy illustrations of Nguyen Thanh Vu have brought a whole new look to the poetry book of poet Nguyen The Hoang Linh, contributing significantly to the success of this book.

The Best Summer Party Ever!, written by Le Thi Nhu Thuy and Crabit Kidbooks team, illustrated by Linh Luong, is a story in the series Generation Equality — Fairy Tales on Gender Equality. This is the first modern fairy tale on gender equality book series for children published in Vietnam. The illustrators of the book series, such as Linh Luong and Nhu Quynh, have contributed to creating a valuable literary work that is really relevant and attractive to the young readers. Linh Luong is also an illustrator who is especially interested in disadvantaged children groups and sustainable development topics with many projects like Super Bookcase and Sun Box Drawing Class.

Finding Mother and Other Folk Tales, written by Nguyen Huy Tuong, illustrated by Rong Pham, shows the interest of contemporary Vietnamese illustrators with literary works of Vietnamese children's classics. Finding Mother is one of the best children's stories by writer Nguyen Huy Tuong (1912 – 1960) written around 1954. Impressive illustrations by young illustrator Pham Rong have really brought this work back to today's children's readers.

Illustrator Ta Huy Long made his mark in the field of children's book illustration with The Diary of a Cricket by author To Hoai, however, the generation of illustrators was at the same time as him not many people clearly define their creative role in the field of children's book illustration, they mainly illustrate book covers, storybook illustrations, newspaper illustrations, children's magazines... at the request of publishers.

Over the past 10 years, Vietnam has begun to form a new generation of active, dynamic and professional children's book illustrators. They self-compose, self-publish, go global, cooperate with foreign publishers, create in many diverse and rich genres such as picture books, manga, comics, graphic novels, etc. distinct personal impressions that have a place in the hearts of contemporary readers.

That's why the selected works are all quite recent.
