

The Tale of Didgit Cobbleheart Series

Aang Muljanto

The Tale of Didgit Cobbleheart is a children's book series focusing on children aged 3-8 years old. Through simple stories, parents and teachers can tell their children and students stories of the main character Didgit Cobbleheart, who learnt life values through little things he and his friends experienced. The series is fully supported by a comprehensive website and an array of social media especially designed for children, parents and teachers. Through www.didgitcobbleheart.com, readers can explore the day-to-day world of Didgit Cobbleheart represented in daily illustrations via Facebook (Didgit Cobbleheart) and Twitter (@cobbleheart). Read various exciting articles, especially about Indonesia, in the blog (Soul Snacks Café) or enjoy the short animation (didgitcobbleheart channel at YouTube).

Complete titles of this series:

- The Tale of Didgit Cobbleheart and His Fingers
- The Tale of Didgit Cobbleheart and the Mysterious Wolf Boy
- The Tale of Didgit Cobbleheart and the Lotus Pond
- The Tale of Didgit Cobbleheart and the Lost Toys
- The Tale of Didgit Cobbleheart and the Floppyraptor King
- The Tale of Didgit Cobbleheart and the Big Bone

Aang Muljanto grew up in the congested metropolitan city of Jakarta, Indonesia, and spent several years studying abroad. Falling in love with writing and wanting to be a journalist, Aang ended up working as an advertising copywriter for more than 15 years. After winning several Citra Pariwara Awards for radio scripts, Aang finally decided to take the plunge into writing and publishing children's books, while dreaming that one day, Indonesian children's books will be successful on the international market.

Hujan! Hujan! Hujaaan!

Hey, It's Raining!

Agnes Bemoe

It's the rainy season! Isn't it a wonderful time? You can play in the rain, enjoy the frogs' orchestra, or watch the rainwater dance. If you are lucky, you can even see the colors of the rainbow in the rain! Yet, some children don't like the rain because they get a cold when it rains.

Do you have stories about the rain? Maybe they are similar to the stories you read here? Don't miss the fun facts in this book. You'll learn how rain forms, why we need rain and why frogs croak when it rains.

Agnes Bemoe had been teaching for seventeen years when she started writing children's stories in 2010. So far, she has published seven books and written many short stories for magazines and newspapers. In May 2013, one of her stories, Utan for Marcia, was shortlisted for the Singtel Asian Picture Book Award in Singapore. Agnes is active in Books for Nusa Tenggara Timur, an organization that builds libraries and distributes books to children in remote areas.

Cici Kelinci Keeps Her Fur Clean

Andy Bianchi & Kesaint Blanc

4.1

One day Cici Kelinci goes out for a walk with her family. They spend a wonderful time playing and having fun. When mummy gets tired, she takes a nap under a tree, but not before telling her children to stay near her.

Sadly, each daughter disobeys her and wanders off. Each one finds something delicious to eat. When they return, however, they are all alarmed to find that their fur has taken on the color of the food they ate. When mummy wakes up, she realizes something is wrong. Despite being cross with them for not having done what she said, she forgives them all and takes them to the river where they wash their fur which soon returns to its normal colour.

This book has loveable and fresh illustrations of Indonesia's rare animals. Children will enjoy the English nursery rhymes, word highlights in 8 different languages and fun facts that can be found in the book. An Audio CD narrated by native speakers is included.

Andy Bianchi is the author and co-author of a number of books, published in the UK and America. Many of his books are illustrated and specially written for children and young people. He loves rhymes and enjoys the different sounds and pictures words bring to mind when read out loud. Andy has taken his books into schools and young people's groups where he has had the opportunity to share his love for books with children.

He lives in England with his wife, three children and one dog. When not writing, he enjoys sports especially rugby and running. He also enjoys listening to and trying to play music.

Gadis Paradis Learns About Beauty

Andy Bianchi & Kesaint Blanc

Gadis spends all her time trying to look beautiful. One day while shopping at the market she sees an old book with ideas on how to look even more beautiful.

Gadis buys the book and has to follow some instructions. As she is doing what the book says, she meets other creatures and—without meaning to—helps them. But she ends up getting messy and loses a ring. This makes her cross and she stops doing what the book says.

When she gets home she looks in the mirror and is very upset. She goes to the bird who sold the book to complain, but the bird gets her to look in the book again and she sees that by helping others she has shown real beauty.

This book has loveable and fresh illustrations of Indonesia's rare animals. Children will enjoy the English nursery rhymes, word highlights in 8 different languages and fun facts that can be found in the book. An Audio CD narrated by native speakers is included.

Intan Orangutan Tasty Lesson

Andy Bianchi & Kesaint Blanc

4.3

Intan Orangutan is fed up with her homework. She'd much rather play outside, swinging in the trees near her home.

Her mother sees her and wonders if she can think of a way to encourage Intan to study. Knowing how much her daughter loves milk, she decides to take her to a farmyard to learn where the drink comes from.

With the help of a friendly cow, Intan learns how milk is made and about all the wonderful things that are produced from it. Together they go back home to try out some tasty milk recipes—especially her favorite, ice cream. Through her visit and experiment with cooking, Intan realizes that learning is fun and works hard to become a clever orangutan.

Limau Harimau Learns about Winning

Andy Bianchi & Kesaint Blanc

4.5

It's time for little Limau Harimau to go to bed, but when his father comes to say goodnight, he finds Limau crying. Limau is sad because his friends have been making fun of him because he's not very quick. So his father tells him a wonderful story of a turtle who, although he wasn't a fast runner, decided to enter a race.

Although the turtle came last, all those watching realised that he had done his best and shown great bravery and determination to finish. It was these qualities that made him special. Thanks to his father's story, Limau is able to fall asleep. He is happy because he realises that the important thing is not to worry about what his friends say, but to be brave and persistent.

Andai....

I Wish...

Anisa Widiyarti

This book tells the stories about children's imagination. Like a girl that wishes all colors were pink, a boy that wishes to be the son of a king so he would have plenty of toys and another girl that wishes all foods taste sweet, have a robot so she didn't have to do her tasks and also wishes to get everything for free. Readers will see what would happen if their imaginations came true. Obviously, not everything turned out as they wish. This make them more grateful, as they realised that the present condition is for the best. The stories come with colorful illustrations that would make children enjoy it more.

Anisa Widiyarti has written 19 children's book, 6 anthologies of children's book with other writers and also anthologies for adult nonfiction books. She was often asked to be jury and speaker about writing for students in elementary and middle school.

Kodi Si Kodok yang Suka Menyanyi

Kodi the Singing Frog

Arleen Amidjaja

A collection of ten 20-page stories targeted at pre-school and kindergarten children:

- Kodi the Singing Frog
- Kodi Lost His Voice
- Kodi and the Whistle
- The Pond Olympic
- The Lost Crown
- Going Camping
- A Great Big Brother
- A Wonderful Holiday
- Todi's Visit
- Kodi on Stage

Children love animals, especially small animals. In this book young readers will grow to love Kodi, a young frog who loves to sing. Through the stories of Kodi and his friends, they will learn about issues of growing up such as younger siblings (A Great Big Brother), trust and friendship (The Lost Crown), differences among people (Todi's Visit) and they will learn to deal with these issues in fun ways.

Arleen Amidjaja is a prolific children's book writer. She started writing in 2004, because she found it challenging to find good children books at affordable prices in Jakarta. Her first books were published in 2005. Arleen holds a B.Sc. in Commerce and an MBA from Santa Clara University in California and she is currently working full time in a distribution company in Jakarta. Even though her educational background and her work have led her more towards numbers rather than words, Arleen was raised as a book loving person. In the past ten years, she had written more than 220 children books and 10 adult novels, working with more than 20 publishers. This year she is celebrating her 10th year as a published writer. Raised bilingually in a multicultural nation, most of her books are bilingual. Some of her books have become bestsellers (I Love you Mom, Kingdom Tales Collection, Motivate Your Kids the Right Way and Animal Tales Collection) and some have also been published in Malaysia, Vietnam and India. "To me, writing is not just an infatuation or simply a summer fling that lasts a fortnight, it's clearly an everlasting love. For as long as I live, you will definitely see me writing." Arleen is mother of two, a thirteen year old daughter and a five year old son. She can be contacted at her email: arleen315@yahoo.com

Kumpulan Kisah "Sahabat Kecil" yang Menakjubkan

Tales of Remarkable "Little Companions"

Arleen Amidjaja

Tales of Remarkable "Little Companions" contains ten fascinating stories about finding the true meaning of life. Children will find the stories both amusing and meaningful, especially because they depict familiar childhood things such as wooden horse, rubber duck and plastic yo-yo as main characters. These tales will be read over and over again and will be handed down to the next generations as tales that will live in their heart forever.

Nelson: Si Kecil yang Suka Baca

Nelson: The Boy Who Loved to Read

Adela Gozali Yose & Kasogi Yose

This is a story about a boy with a big dream. The curious boy loved to read, and books were his best friends. Achieving the big dream required him to be hard working and persistent. His great love of reading was important in his journey.

The character "Nelson" was written based on the true life story of Professor Nelson Tansu. Nelson—an Indonesia—joined Lehigh University (Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, USA) as a faculty member at the age of 25, where he is currently the Daniel E. '39 and Patricia M. Smith Endowed Chair Professor and Director for Center for Photonics and Nanoelectronics at Lehigh. His expertise are in the areas of Applied Physics and Engineering, in particular related to semiconductors, nanotechnologies, nanoelectronics, and photonics. Up to 2015, he has published more than 105 articles in refereed international journals, and he holds more than 14 US patents.

Ketika DamDam Kehilangan Wajahnya

A Face for DamDam

Ary Nilandari

DamDam has just gotten a new head and body. They are made out of coconut shell and the spine of a banana leaf. But what kind of face will suit him? Should it be smiling, happy, sad, or angry? It is funny how masks can change DamDam's facial expressions. They can even make him look scary! An interesting story with colorful illustrations of Indonesian traditional masks.

Ary Nilandari is a writer and editor. She has launched numerous children's books, young adult as well as adult novels and she has won a number of awards for her writing. In 2015 one of her works, The Big Show of the Little Barongan, was shortlisted for the Nami Concour Award.

Rotan pun Jadi

Rattan Will Do

Ary Nilandari

Nobody stops by the shop to buy what is left from the once large variety of rattan furniture and handicrafts. That means there is no money to buy a new ball. But there's no need to worry! As the proverb says: if there is no rattan, then roots will do! There is always a substitute!

Dari Batu ke Batu

The Missing Rocks

Ary Nilandari

The frogs miss the rocks which once served as the glorious stage of their choir. Humans took away the rocks and this has made the riverbank not only very quiet but also unstable. Because there are no more rocks to shore up the bank, the slope is slowly sliding down. If only, yes, if only, humans were more careful when deciding which rock to take away, things would not be ruined.

Ayu Prameswary

"If you want to marry me, you must build 1,000 temples for me in just one night." That was Loro Jongrang's request when she was asked to marry Bandung Bondowoso. It was said to be the legend of Loro Jongrang Temple in Central Java. Follow the tales of Loro Jongrang, Kleting Kuning, Dayang Sumbi and other princesses of Indonesian folklores. Indonesia has a lot of folklore, and some of them tell the life of a Goddess or Princess.

This book presents Indonesian fairy tale of princesses:

Dewi Sri (from the tale of "Dewi Sri"),
 Candra Kirana (from the tale of "Keong Mas"),
 Bawang Putih (from the tale of "Bawang Merah & Bawang Putih"),
 Kleting Kuning (from the tale of "Ande-ande Lumut"),
 Loro Jongrang (from the tale of "Legend of Prambanan Temple"),
 Nawang Wulan (from the tale of "Jaka Tarub"),
 Dayang Sumbi (from the tale of "Sangkuriang"),
 Beru Sibou (from the tale of "A Story of an Enau Tree"),
 Purbasari (from the tale of "Lutung Kasarung") and Timun Mas (from the tale of "Timun Mas").

The Glass Crown Contest and Other Stories

Bambang Irwanto

Wiyat and Gitarja were Majapahit princesses. They held a contest to find the perfect prince to be their king.

Many princes attended the contest, however they were all strong and clever. What should the princesses do to have the perfect King?

Other stories:

- The Queen's Special Troops
(Sultanah Rajiatuddin of Bone Kingdom)
- The Queen's Journey
(Queen Mas of Tanah Bumbu Kingdom)
- The Queen and the Prince
(Queen Pucuk Umun of Sumedang Larang Kingdom)
- The Kindhearted Queen
(Queen Nahrisyah of Samudra Pasai Kingdom)

Bambang Irwanto loved to read children's story that he learned how to write it by himself. His first fairy tale was "Soja" and published in 2004 Bobo Fairy Tale Compilation. His fairy tales are often published in Bobo, Soca, Girls, Mombi, Kompas Anak Minggu and also in several fairy tales and compilation books.

Bagai Bumi Berhenti Berputar

As If the Earth Stood Still

Clara Ng

What is death? Why can't sister walk? Why is mother leaving father? Why is brother hospitalized? Why do I have to move to a foreign place? Children cannot be separated from negative emotions like grief, shock, sadness and shame. Emotionally draining events can also happen in a family.

As parents, we should not ignore it, or even consider that it should not be disclosed or exaggerated. Parents are required to provide support for their children. This book helps children understand their feelings; reminding them that they are not alone. It also helps children to empathize with other children who happened to be experiencing a sad event in their family. Let's read and unite your hearts with your children.

Debora Toety Maklis

Cricket didn't like to work. He sang and played all day and night long. Ant kept working to make sure the rice would grow. When Ant dried her rice in the sun, Cricket thought it was no fun. He preferred relaxing and humming a tune until the moon came up. When Cricket got hungry, he just picked something edible from nearby plants and trees. Then, suddenly, one day it rained and rained until the fields were flooded. Cricket was stuck in the mud. There was water everywhere and Cricket couldn't find a single thing to eat.

Debora Toety Maklis translated adult books and fairytales from English to Indonesian, before starting to write her own books for children in 1978. She is a pioneer in writing for young children. She has written more than 40 books. Her story, Irah Becomes a Flower Gardener, was selected by the Asian/Pacific-Co-Publication Program (ACP) for publication in Literature for Young Adults.

The Illustrator of this book is Nana Ruslana.

Komik Cerita Rakyat Indonesia 1-3

Indonesian Folktales Comics, vol 1-3

14

Dian Kristiani & Tethy Ezokanzo

- Komik Cerita Rakyat Indonesia vol. 1: Sumatra, Bali, Nusa Tenggara
- Komik Cerita Rakyat Indonesia vol. 2: Jawa, Maluku, Papua
- Komik Cerita Rakyat Indonesia vol. 3: Kalimantan, Sulawesi

You can find hundreds of timeless Indonesian folktales in this comic book. Tales like Malin Kundang from West Sumatra, Sangkuriang from West Java, Kebo Iwa from Bali and many others have been told through the generations and across the Indonesian archipelago to teach lessons of true love, respect, fighting for life and of honesty. The stories in this book are written especially for children, eliminating elements of mysticism and violence, but adults, too, will find them entertaining. The stories are skillfully illustrated by a talented Indonesian illustrator. Children will love the funny pictures and the verbal exchanges in this book.

These three volumes of comics cover folktales from major regions of Indonesia.

Dian has written more than 50 books, including children's books, novels and non-fiction and she frequently writes articles for magazines. She can be contacted at her e-mail: diankrist@yahoo.com and Twitter: @diankrist.

The Golden Claw

Djayakrisna & Admaksudi

16.1

The Golden Claw is about a toad who took revenge by poisoning the river. Welas, who had a limp, ran away to the forest. He came to a haunted cave which was inhabited by an evil sorcerer wolf named Sala. Hurt because the villagers of Mamari threw leftover food at him, Welas conspired with Sala to bring misfortune to the villagers. The river was polluted and the nearby people suffered. Who would come to the rescue?

The animals in The Golden Claw represent human characters. This bilingual book (Indonesian-English) ends with short explanations of the main characters of the story.

Djayakrisna & Admaksudi have been friends since their high school days in Bandung. Both are interested in art. They often collaborate, Djayakrisna writes the stories, while Admaksudi creates the characters and illustrations. Together they have produced several series of children's books. They believe that illustrated children's books stimulate the imagination and reveal wonders. They dare to use bright, psychedelic colors. Admaksudi works as a freelance graphic designer, while Djayakrisna is self-employed in the consumer goods and services field.

It is difficult to be different. Poor Jampi! Just because of his white tuft, no one wants to play with him. In order to befriend the other monkeys, Jampi tried to eliminate his white tuft. Therefore he goes north, looking for a sacred tortoise. No one believes that his journey will turn into an amazing adventure and lead him to new friends. Will Jampi find the sacred tortoise and eliminate his tuft? The animals in The Golden Tuft represent good and bad behaviors in this bilingual book (Indonesian-English). At the end of the book, there is a short explanation regarding the Celebes black ape (Macaca nigra) and the tortoise (Manouria emys).

Lobu Lovely Series: When Umang Stops Being Angry

Djoko Hartanto & Daud Budi Surya

Umang the gibbon was very clean and neat. He lived among the high branches of a tall tree. His bed was made of leaves and must be neat and comfortable. All fruits must be stored properly. One night, three rats came to party at Umang's house. They left the house dirty and smelling bad. Umang screamed and yelled and was very angry. Despite having been victimized, Umang became the jungle's public enemy. What could Lala and her friends do to help Umang? Ultimately, shaking off his anger brought peace to Umang's soul again.

Story telling and drawing have long attracted Djoko Hartanto.

In 1999 he received a Master of Design degree from the University of Technology in Sydney. Together with his wife Fifi, he started a graphic design bureau Kineto, and in 2004 published Concept, a graphic design magazine. In 2008 he published the Indonesian superhero comic Alia.

Daud Budi Surya, the illustrator of this book, graduated from the Visual Communication Design Faculty of the Bandung Institute of Technology. They created the Lobu Lovely Buddies, a series of picture books with unique Indonesian characters such as Lala the tiny girl who befriends jungle animals (Bombom, Bimbim, Ella, Bambam the elephant, Umang the gibbon, Wouwou the orangutan, Nono the rhinoceros, Caca the leopard, Agung the skunk, Keke the bat and Mr. Eagle).

Kumpulan Cerita Sahabat Bumi

Friends of the Earth

DK Wardani & Watiek Ideo

Taking care of the earth is our responsibility, and our children need to know this from an early age. This book introduces environmental issues like air and water pollution and describes how children can help. The five stories of this book are beautifully illustrated and filled with exciting activities children can do to protect the environment—among them creating a vertical garden, funding a garbage bank, harvesting rainwater, using a static bicycle to produce electricity and building a pool to purify water as well as many others.

Endang Firdaus

Boys as well as girls love animals. Because animals always attract the attention of small children, many parents start to introduce animal characters to their children at an early age. Through the experiences of these characters, children can easily understand and absorb early life lessons.

This book contains 50 animal stories. They are fun to read, stimulate the imagination and abound in meaningful messages.

Endang Firdaus was born on December 28 in Jakarta. Since 1986 her work has appeared in a number of magazines and national newspapers, such as Bobo, Ananda, Kawanku, Tomtom, Lembaran Kancil Pos Kota, Aku Anak Saleh, Mombi, Kids Fantasi, C'nS Junior, Sigma, Bravo, Ummi and Imut. Endang's other works are also compiled in Bobo Short Story Anthology and Bobo Fairytale Anthology.

The Little Postman

Evan Raditya Pratomo

The Little Postman is a story of hope and courage in the search of identity. It takes place in the fictional land of Storytopia. In Storytopia, there are humans, elves, dwarves and giants called Hummers—because they always hum. Animals and insects called Hoppers—because they always hope to find a better place to live. There are also fairies known as Flutters.

The Little Postman himself is a boy named "90". Every postman in Storytopia has a numeric name. 90 is the youngest and smallest of all the postmen. As the story proceeds, we watch 90 confronts his biggest fear. At the end of the story, he receives a nickname which he likes as well as his own birth name. The intriguing Storytopia universe and the character of the postman who rides a paper airplane make this story book unique and exciting.

Evan Raditya Pratomo was born in Malang, East Java in 1990. In 2013 he graduated from the Faculty of Visual Communication Design of Universitas Ciputra and now works as an illustrator in his own studio, Papercaptain Studio. He is inspired by Japanese Ukiyo-e and the Ornamental European art style. His work has been featured on various graphic design websites, and in 2011 he exhibited his work at the East Java Biennale. He has won many awards in local competitions.

Cinta Rarang dan Konga

Rarang and Konga's Love

Evi Z. Indriani

Pobe the giant tree had visitors, a couple of gigantic birds. Rarang and Konga, a couple of hornbills were about to make a nest inside Pobe's trunk as they prepared to start a family. The two birds were looking forward to a happy future. One day, however, Rarang didn't come home. Konga was worried that Rarang had been captured by hunters. Konga could only pray that Allah would save Rarang from any danger.

Evi Z. Indriani was born in Bandung, West Java, Indonesia, on 28 October 1971. She writes children's literature with local content that relies on the great biodiversity and the local wisdom of Indonesia, her motherland. Her short stories have appeared in many children's magazines since 1999, and her first children's book was published in 2012.

The Cry of the Giant Patma

Evi Z. Indriani

24.2

While Lala the fly was resting, she heard a strange cry. She flew off to find out who was crying. She was worried that somewhere there was an animal in pain. Then she smelled a rotten odor which, it turned out, came from a giant patma, a gigantic and rare flower found only in Indonesia. The giant patma was named Jantanz. Jantanz told Lala about his life. Jantanz cried because there were only few of his kind left and he was worried he would not be able to find a partner. Lala promised to help Jantanz find a female flower. Fortunately, Lala found Betinanz, a female flower.

This book presents a beautiful story with colorful illustrations. It will not only teach young readers kindness, but it will also introduce them to the beauty of Indonesia's diverse flora and fauna, underlining the importance of caring and protecting the nature.

Ketika Nyu-Nyu Bertemu Pagul

When Nyu-Nyu Meets Pagul

Evi Z. Indriani

Nyu-Nyu the little turtle had a stomachache. Suddenly, he heard a gentle voice calling him. Nyu-Nyu looked everywhere, but saw no one. When he came back to the water's surface, he saw a strange twig. It turned out that it was the twig that had spoken to him. The twig's name was Pagul. Pagul was the fruit of a mangrove tree and, like the tree's other fruits, was destined to float on the sea until it found the perfect soil for growing. Pagul told his story to Nyu-Nyu and warned him about the dangers of sea pollution. Pagul had encountered many pollutants that were extremely dangerous to turtles like Nyu-Nyu. Nyu-Nyu became more cautious and wished that human beings were more careful and thoughtful about the sea in which he lived. Presented as a beautiful story with colorful illustrations, this book will introduce children to the beauty of Indonesia's diverse flora and fauna.

Hadiah untuk si Komi

A Gift for Komi

Fina Faza

Komi's mother was angry with Komi. This young komodo was so lazy and often got cranky about trivial things. One day, however, special guests came to visit Komi's family. Who were they? Why did Komi get a special gift from his mother? Let's find out by reading this story—as well as eight others—about the lives of Indonesian rare and indigenous animals. With its brilliant illustrations, this book is filled with moral tales for young readers.

Fina Faza, the mother of a young daughter, lives in a small town in Central Java. For her, writing is not only a hobby but also a mean to share her thoughts and ideas. Her observations of the world of children later on become the inspiration for her writings.

Ibu Bebek dan Ibu Ayam

Mrs. Duck and Mrs. Hen

28.1

Fitra Hayati

The voice of Mr. Rooster is very loud and clear. With that voice, he wakes up everyone everyday. Unfortunately, the importance of Mr. Rooster's duty has made Mrs. Hen arrogant. She likes to mock Mrs. Duck, her neighbor, calling her "Lazy Ducky". Mrs. Hen has forgotten that God hates arrogant creatures. Pride goes before a fall and she soon learns a lesson. One day, when she is pecked hard by her own newly hatched chick, she runs to Mrs. Duck, her neighbor, for help.

Si Bungsu

The Fifth Monkey

Fitra Hayati

God has blessed all creatures with His love and compassion. Through this love and compassion, families are formed and all the members of a family live in harmony. The Monkey family in this story also live together harmoniously. They eat together and they look after each other. When relaxing, they take turns grooming each other and cleaning off ticks and fleas from their fur. Each time the youngest one (the fifth) cries, his parents and siblings rush to comfort him.

Hatta Bercerita: Cerita tentang Kebijaksanaan

Hatta Telling Stories: About Wisdom

Hatta Rajasa

This book consists of popular folktales from many parts of the Indonesian archipelago, told by a grandparent to his grandson. There are stories about "Batu Belah Batu Betangkup" (The Split Rock), "Biwar Sang Penakluk Naga" (The Dragon Conqueror), "Kemarau Panjang di Kerajaan Buaya" (Long Dry Season at the Crocodile Kingdom), "Putri Bunga Memanah Rembulan" (Princess Flower Shooting an Arrow at the Moon), dan "Si Kelingking" (The Little Finger). These stories are so close to the writer's heart ever since his childhood. They teach us to obey our parents, to have a noble heart, to have a good leadership and to have courage.

Hatta Rajasa, former Indonesian Secretary of State (2007-2009), grew up with bedtime stories told by his mother, Ama, every night. After completing his night prayer, little Hatta, second child of 12 siblings, sat cross-legged on the floor together with his siblings listening to Ama telling stories from the Nusantara archipelago. "I used to imagine myself being inside Ama's stories," said Hatta. These childhood stories leave a legacy of courage, kindness and wisdom with him.

Mahabarata: Kepahlawanan Bisma

Mahabarata: Bisma's Heroism

Herjaka HS

The Mahabarata is a legendary story. Its tales are told in the traditional puppet theater. Despite its popularity among the older generation, many younger people are not familiar with the Mahabarata. This book presents stories from the Mahabarata: Kepahlawanan Bisma (Bisma's Heroism). The moral values of the stories reflect important aspects of our life such as diligence, loyalty, courage, struggle, hope, love, sacrifice, despair, cruelty, intrigue, ambition and tragedy.

The book consists of 5 parts: "Kesetiaan Dewabrata" (Dewabrata's Loyalty), "Anugerah Dewabrata" (Grace for Dewabrata), "Dendam Gendari" (Gendari's Grudge), "Dosa Pandu Dewanata" (Pandu Dewanata's Sin) and "Seratus Bayi Tumpuan Dendam" (A Hundred Babies).

Herjaka is an artist who specializes in wayang paintings. He has written 7 books based on the Mahabarata story. In 2014, those books were re-published in one volume titled Kepahlawanan Bisma (Bisma's Heroism). Herjaka also writes Mahabarata series at www.tembi.net. He showcases his works at www.herjaka.com.

Indonesian Folktale

K. Usman

36

Indonesia is a country with many provinces. Each province has its own culture, tradition and stories. Through this book, readers can see how rich Indonesia is in terms of folklores that have existed since long time ago.

This book consists of fourteen popular stories from different regions. They live and are told from one generation to another. The characters of each story portray how people live in a community and the values they hold. The cultures and traditions may vary from place to place, but each title has good moral values.

This book is suitable for children, teenagers and also parents. It will enrich their knowledge of Indonesian folklores as well as its cultures and traditions.

10 Kisah Klasik Korea

10 Korean Classic Tales with a Picture Dictionary and Exercises

Mathilde May

Let's enter the world of Korean classic tales! This is where you'll meet Princess Pyong Kang who helped turn a beggar into a brave warrior; two brothers who loved each other dearly; and the couple who found a magical fountain. Don't forget to get to know the wise rabbit and the naughty frog, too!

Mathilde May studied medicine at Trisakti University but found her calling in teaching English and writing children's stories. She loves books and started writing stories when she was seven. One of her stories won a writing competition held by The British Council in 2002 and was published together with two other stories by PT Grasindo. She has also published two collections of stories, Little Stories for You and A Potion for Granny. She is now preparing another storybook, a collection of 17 stories written by 17 English teachers that will be published and distributed to libraries all over Indonesia. Most of her stories are regularly published in C'nS Junior, an English magazine for children.

Murti Bunanta

39.1

This story from West Sumatra tells us about a young man who dreams of becoming a king and having a beautiful wife. However, in the course of pursuing his dream, he faces many obstacles and challenges. He overcomes them with the help of animals he has helped at one time. The story suggests that high aspirations will lead to high achievement.

Murti Bunanta is a children's literature specialist, researcher, children's folklorist and children's book author. She is an international award winning author (for six of her books) who has published 50 books in Indonesia, Canada and the USA. Six of her books have been translated into Japanese, Korean, Mongolian and German. She is the founder and president of the Society for the Advancement of Children's Literature (SACL, since 1987) and of the Indonesian Section of IBBY (INABBY, since 1990) which pioneers children's reading in Indonesia. She has received high recognition from the Indonesian and Slovakian government for her dedication to the promotion of reading and for her efforts to improve the quality of children's books. She has been invited to more than 16 countries to talk on children's literature and give story-telling performances.

Putri Kemang

Kemang Princess

Murti Bunanta

39.4

This story comes from Bengkulu. Princess Kemang is very fond of hunting. When she ventures into the woods to hunt, she sees a deer and tries to shoot him. The first attempt fails, but her second shot is successful. The Kemang tree, which is close to the deer, looks like a handsome young man. The princess wants him to be her friend. But the young man says that this is not possible unless the jungle is changed into a kingdom.

The princess promises that she will transform it into a royal forest and pick up the young man. The princess returns to her kingdom, but on the way she encounters obstacles. The dog that always accompanies her dies and she encounters a crocodile. After one year, the princess returns to the forest which has become an empire and is ruled by the Son of Kemang, the handsome young man she met before.

The princess invites him to her kingdom. This unusual story recounts the courage and bravery of a princess. She is very independent and chooses her own prince.

Legenda Pohon Beringin

The Legend of the Banyan Tree

Murti Bunanta

In some places, the banyan tree is still considered sacred, especially on the islands which once were under the influence of Hinduism, such as Java (West Java, East Java and Central Java), Madura and Bali. This tree is commonly believed to be the dwelling place of both good and evil spirits. This is a Javanese folktale that recounts the origins of the banyan tree in a moving story about the love of half brothers.

Ampak dan Musang yang Cerdik

Ampak and the Cunning Civet Cat

Murti Bunanta

This story comes from South Kalimantan and tells about a civet cat that is caught red-handed stealing the fruit of a lime tree that belongs to Ampak. As a punishment, the civet cat has to serve Ampak. When Ampak goes to live in a palace, the civet cat refuses to join him and chooses to guard the lime tree instead. This story is reminiscent of the well-known European tale Puss in Boots.

Putri Mandalika

Princess Mandalika

Murti Bunanta

This legend originates from Lombok, an island in West Nusa Tenggara, and is associated with the Nyale tradition that is still alive today. Once upon a time, a beautiful princess named Mandalika was asked for her hand in marriage by two kings from two different kingdoms. But Princess Mandalika did not want to get married, and this could lead to war. This is a story of a beautiful princess who is willing to sacrifice her life for the sake of her people.

Masarsenenani dan Matahari

Masarsenenani and the Sun

39.11

Murti Bunanta

The story of Masarsenenani comes from Papua. This story tells about her life as a sago pounder. The people in her village are happy when the Sun shines all day long, but that day darkness comes so fast so she can only pound a little sago for her family. Masarsenenani wants to catch the Sun so it will shine longer on her village. But when the Sun is trapped, Masarsenenani feels sorry for the Sun. So she releases the Sun. When the Sun knows why Masarsenenani has trapped him, the Sun promises to be fair in providing light to her village. The village becomes prosperous. This story teaches us to take care of the environment and not to be greedy.

Murti Bunanta

The Youngest Frog is a folktale from Southeast Maluku. A mother has seven sons, and the youngest is a frog. As the boys grow up, they want to venture out into the world and find their fortune. The older brothers leave the frog on an island, where a giant gives him a magic axe. With this axe the frog manages to deceive a big giant. This tale shows that being younger and different doesn't mean you're less worthy than others.

Suwidak Loro

Suwidak Loro

Murti Bunanta

This folktale from Java tells about a girl who has only sixty-two hairs on her head. So great is her mother's love for her that every night, she sings a prayer asking that her ugly daughter be transformed into a beauty so she can become the wife of a king. Finally, she exchanges her daughter's ugly face with the face of the beautiful daughter of a goddess with her favorite food, Botok Semayi, a mixture of grated coconut meat and fish paste made from pounded shrimps. This story shows that a mother's love has no boundaries.

First Day of School Series

Naning Chandra

The first day of school is an important milestone for children and parents because children, for the first time, experience a new social environment, independent of their family. This series talks about common problems encountered by children on their first day.

Titles in this series:

- Ayo, Berangkat! (Let's Go!)
- Mama di Mana? (Where is Mother?)
- Jangan Malu Leo (Don't be Shy, Leo)
- Gogo Mau Berbagi (Gogo Want to Share)
- Maafkan Nanu, ya! (Please Forgive Nanu!)

This book can help parents explain the school environment to their children.

Naning is a housewife and mother of two sons. She loves to watch movies, read, and listen to music. Her published children's books are 39 Winner's Characters 1-2 (2012-2013), The Beauty of Friendship (2014), and First Day of School Series (2015).

9 Dongeng Indah Musim Gugur

9 Beautiful Autumn Stories

Renny Yaniar

This book contains 9 stories inspired by the beauty of autumn. What color of coat is best for wearing in autumn: dark or bright? In a park with colorful trees, Miu the Cat meets two of its admirers. What if the hill that is supposed to be red turns blue in autumn? Absorbed in taking pictures at the station, Naya and her friends miss the last train! Then Naya has a magical experience. All stories in this book are beautifully illustrated with colorful pictures of autumn.

Renny Yaniar loves writing children's books. She has written more than 275 short stories, bedtime stories, illustrated stories and comic strips. Her work has been published in various magazines and newspapers. Renny once worked as an editor at Kompas Anak. In 2000, her work was displayed in an exhibition of children's stories at the Graha Budaya Indonesia in Tokyo, Japan. In June 2002, one of her books, Lautan Susu Coklat, won first prize of the Adikarya IKAPI (Indonesian Publishers' Association) in the children's books category.

Cerita Binatang: Ring Rang Takut Berenang

Animal Stories: Ring Rang is Afraid to Swim

44.2

Renny Yaniar

On the river bank, lived a beaver family in a little house built of branches and twigs. Their child, Ring Rang, slept inside their cozy house all day and all night long. Only at meal times did Mama and Papa Beaver wake Ring Rang. One day, they decided that Ring Rang should go out to enjoy the sunshine, smell the flowers and swim in the river. Ring Rang, however, refused to go out until he saw little Bivi swimming and was told that a true beaver has to be able to swim!

360 Fakta Paling Aneh, Paling Seru, Paling Keren, Paling Ajaib

360 Facts: The Weirdest, Craziest, Coolest!

Rosi L. Simamora

Windmills always turns counter clockwise, except in Ireland. Waialeale Mountain in Hawaii has the highest rate of rainfall on earth. Paris was the first city to use electric street lights. Zebras can't see the color orange.

Read the most amazing facts about Earth and the universe; about legends, superstitions and discoveries; about animals; people and science.

Rosi L. Simamora started her career as fiction editor and translator in Gramedia Pustaka Utama (1993-2012). Although she is a fine editor and translator, she has always known that writing is her greatest passion. Therefore, in 2012, she decided to make the leap and resign from her work to become a full-time writer. Now she writes everything, from children's books, teenlit, to romance and biography. Sometimes she works as a ghostwriter, too. Because she knows that editing and translating enrich her writing, she always welcomes the opportunities to do both.

The Frog Prince

Sanggar Tumpal

Long ago the Balinese forgot to present the ritual offerings to the gods. The gods got angry and punished them with a long drought. Life was difficult, the people suffered and they became selfish. Rangda, the ruler of evil and suffering, was ready to take over Bali, when a young prince, Putu Oka, offered to sacrifice himself for the welfare of the people. Rangda turned Putu Oka into an ugly frog who would once again transform into a man only when he could find a girl who truly loved him.

Sanggar Tumpal is a group of talented illustrators from Bogor, West Java. They are led by Baby Ahnan, and the other members are Mad Yusup, Eddy Rozally Mulia, Fachrudin Ardiansyah, Iding and Komaruddin. They work together to write Indonesian classic fairytales. They also teach children in their village to paint with an airbrush.

Cindelaras

A Folktale from East Java

Sanggar Tumpal

Cindelaras and his mother lived alone in the forest. Their only companion was a white tiger who could speak like a human. Cindelaras wondered why all animals had a father and a mother, while he had only a mother.

One day Cindelaras went to the faraway Kahuripan Kingdom to challenge the King to a cockfight. Cindelaras won and encountered a great surprise. The King turned out to be his father!

Lutung Kasarung

Sanggar Tumpal

King Tapa Agung and his queen of the Pasir Batang Kingdom had seven beautiful daughters. The wisest of them all, and also the most beautiful, was the youngest, Purbasari. It was not surprising that when King Tapa Agung and his queen decided to take an early retirement, they chose Purbasari as their successor. However, since she was still under age, her eldest sister, Purbararang, would reign in her name for several years. Actually Purbararang was very jealous of her little sister. One moonlit night, she took some jackfruit sap and covered the sleeping Purbasari with it. The next morning, her five sisters were aghast to see her. Purbararang declared her to have a contagious skin disease and she was exiled from the palace.

Jaka Tarub

A Folktale from East Java

Sanggar Tumpal

Jaka Tarub was a hard-working farmer. A lot of girls adored him, but he loved none of them. One day he went to the forest to gather some woods. When he came near a spring, he heard splendid music and saw a beautiful sight. Seven fairies were descending from heaven to bathe in the spring. He fell in love with the most beautiful fairy, Nawangwulan. Jaka Tarub stole her shawl which was hanging on a tree and hid it in his granary.

Leungli

A Folktale from West Java

Sanggar Tumpal

Once upon a time, in a small village in West Java lived seven orphans. They were sisters and all were very beautiful. The youngest, Nyi Bungsu Rarang, was the most beautiful of all. Her sisters were jealous of her and made her do all the heavy work. Nyi Bungsu was kind-hearted and she did everything asked of her without complaint, but she was lonely and unhappy.

One day, when she was extremely sad, she cried at the edge of a lake. Suddenly a magnificent goldfish, Leungli, appeared and consoled her. They became close friends.

Cap Go Meh

Sofie Dewayani

48.1

Nisa, a Moslem girl, and Lili, a Chinese-Indonesian girl, debate whether lontong Cap Go Meh is the typical food of the Eid Al-Fitr tradition or of the Chinese New Year celebration. After sharing the excitement of both celebrations, they come up with a nice conclusion! A delightful story about food acculturation enriched with amazing illustrations.

Sofie Dewayani is a writer and researcher in children's literacy. Her book Cap Go Meh, was shortlisted for the Singtel Asian Picture Book Award, 2013. She is also one of the co-founders of the Litara Foundation Indonesia.

Jangan Sedih, Bujang!

Cheer Up, Bujang

Sofie Dewayani

Bujang doesn't like moving out, but he has to. The forest he lives in no longer gives him food. Bujang doesn't mind finding a new place even though he can't understand why people like to burn forests and take the wood. The only thing he has in mind now is that he is craving for labi-labi! He longs for hunting deer and hog, now that he sees scattered logs everywhere. Will he ever find his favorite foods again?

Banjir di Tanah Toba

Hochwasser im Tobaland

The Flood in the Toba Land

Suroso

A poor man found a fish that turned into a beautiful girl. He later married her and promised not to tell the origin of the girl to anyone. One day, their son made a terrible mistake which made him very angry. He chased away the boy by saying that he was the son of a fish. His wife was very sad to hear that and cried aloud because he had broken his promise. Suddenly, a heavy rain fell down and the water pooled around where his wife and son stood. They disappeared as a lake formed around them. People then called it Toba Lake.

Suroso worked as a translator at Foster Parents Plan International since he was a college student. Together with several colleagues, he founded the English Bureau, an agency of translation and English private lessons. Having earned a bachelor's degree, he worked in the editorial department at a school-book publishing company. He actively wrote textbooks and storybooks for children.

Burung Pungguk Merindukan Bulan

Die Sehnsucht einer Eule nach dem Mond

The Owl Yearning for the Moon

Suroso

Pungguk fell in love with Princess Purnama Bulan, a princess of the moon. However, because of their class differences, they cannot be together. One day the guards suspected Pungguk approached the princess. They beat him to death then threw the body into a lake. Amazingly his body turned into birds. Those birds flew to the earth to leave Pungguk's sadness. When the moon is full, the birds perched and with sad voice called "Pungguk... Pungguk...!" They really missed for the moon.

Jaka dan Pohon Kacang Ajaib

Jaka und die Bohnenranke

Jaka and the Magic Bean Tree

Suroso

A poor boy sold his cow by exchanging it with magic beans. His mother was very angry and threw the beans into the ground. The next morning, the beans grew into a very tall and big bean stalk. The boy climbed up to the top of the tree and found a giant's house who loved eating children. One day, he took the giant's precious hen. The giant heard the noise and chased the boy by climbing down the bean stalk. Luckily, he fell down and died when the boy cut out the bean stalk.

Kisah Raksasa Kebo Iwo

Die Geschichte des Riesen Kebo Iwo

The Story of Kebo Iwo the Giant

Suroso

A giant named Kebo Iwo needed a lot of food to eat. He would be so angry when he was hungry but nobody gave him food. On the other hand, he became kind-hearted and helpful when his stomach was full. One day, he helped the villagers dig a deep well. Accidentally, Kebo Iwo was buried in the well as the heavy rain fell down for several days. Soon, the area near the well became a lake named Batur Lake.

Tenggelamnya Perahu Kerak

Das gesunkene Kruste-Boot

The Sinking of the Crust Boat

Suroso

A monkey named Jahil loved disturbing other animals. Unfortunately, he made a mistake that caused a bird died. Kuntul, the brother of that bird, was very sad to hear about it, but he did not take vengeance on Jahil. They later went on a journey together by a boat, though Jahil did some foolish actions that caused terrible risks. As the boat was sinking, Kuntul tried hard to save Jahil's life. Finally, Jahil promised not to disturb other animals any more.

Jujur Itu Berani

Honesty is Bravery

Zhizhi Siregar

What would you do if you cheat once and no one knows? Draco the little dragon had just won the World's Fastest Dragon Contest. In addition to being popular, which was the dream of every skinny, small dragon, he also received a lot of big presents. At first, he was really happy. Everyone was very nice to him. But it seemed he cannot find peace and joy. He was the only one who knows why. Because... he did not win the contest honestly! It takes bravery to be honest! Will he risk his new-found popularity and let the truth prevail?

Zhizhi Siregar is the pen name of Adzimattinur Siregar. She was born in 1990 and received a Bachelor of Law from the University of Indonesia. Her interest in Human Rights and the plight of Indonesian women workers has brought her to Hong Kong as an advocate in several international organizations. She received the Most Inspiring Youth Award from the Prosperous Justice Party, and the Best National Social Service Report from Sampoerna Foundation. She is actively involved in organizations for writers such as PSBNS (Perhimpunan Sastra Budaya Negara Serumpun, Organization for Writers and Artists in South East Asia) and FLP (Forum Lingkar Pena). She is now establishing a company focused on social development, particularly the empowerment of domestic violence victims, as she continues her education to become a Notary and obtain a degree in Creative Writing.

Kisah Penuh Hikmah

Stories of Wisdom

Anisa Widiyarti

Rita comes home with a sour face because her friend, Eno, reported her to the teacher for having found money at school.

In fact, Eno and Rita had agreed to keep the money and divide it between them. Mother smiles as she listens to Rita's story. Then she recounts a short story about an honest girl. Because of her honesty, the girl is married to the son of a religious leader. Isn't it a beautiful story? There are 19 other stories in this book, all as beautiful and exciting to read.

Kenapa Kita Harus....

Why We Should....

Anisa Widiyarti

This children's book contains fun stories that will answer the questions children often ask about their faith as Moslems: why we should do wudu (ablution), perform salat (worship), make du'a (pray), read Quran, etc? Each story in this book is completed with beautiful verses from the Quran and shahih hadiths.

Asbabun Nuzul untuk Anak-Anak: 50 Kisah Seru Asal Usul Ayat Al-Qur'an

Asbabun Nuzul for Kids: 50 Exciting Stories about the Origin of Quran Verses

Efi Fitriyyah

How amazing the Quran is! Coming directly from God, Quran has incomparable beauty in the stories and the language used. In addition to recounting stories about the followers in the past, many verses in Quran were sent down by Allah in relation to certain events. The purposes were to answer questions or to address events experienced by Prophet Muhammad and his friends. These events are known as asbabun nuzul. This book contains 50 selected asbabun nuzul on various themes. Learning the origin of Quran will hopefully motivate children to read, learn and love Quran.

Efi Fitriyyah was born in Bandung on November 4. Graduated from Universitas Islam Bandung, she worked as an administration staff at a company and at an elementary school in Bandung until mid 2013. Her participation in a community of female writers (IIDN) in 2010 increased her interest in writing.

A novel collector, Efi writes as a therapy to soothe the heart and mind. Asbabun Nuzul for Kids is her first single book. Previously she wrote in an anthology, Long Distance Friendship (Leutika Prio, 2011) and AIDS Bercerita (Leutika Prio, 2012). You can find her other articles at catatan-efi.blogspot.com.

25 Nabi dan Rasul dalam AlQuran

25 Prophets and Messengers of God in the Quran

Komarudin Ibnu Mikam & Herlinda Novita Rahayu

Prophets and apostles are the messengers of God. Each of them has specific duties, abilities and privileges. For instance, the Prophet Adam is the first human being. The Prophet Enoch is able to see heaven and hell. The Prophet Noah preaches for 950 years. The Prophet Abraham and his son Ishmael are instructed to build the Ka'ba. The Prophet Job suffers the ordeal of disease, while his son Prophet Ezekiel is successful in warding off the temptation of Satan.

Seri Menyapa Allah

Greetings Allah Series

Nurma Ratnasari

This series teaches children to cultivate the habit of saying kalimah tayyibah such as Bismillah, Assalamu'alaikum, Allahu Akbar, Astagfirullah and Alhamdulillah in their daily lives. These greetings are often voiced but perhaps not sufficiently understood. The stories remind children to always acknowledge Allah the Most Holy and the Most High.

Hari-Hari Terindah Anak Muslim

The Most Beautiful Days for Moslem Kids

Renny Yaniar

What are the most beautiful days? According to our eight friends, the most beautiful days are those that coincide with important Islamic days: Eid, Ramadhan, Eid Adha and many more. For example, our friend Fitri who lives in London. According to her, the month of Ramadhan is the most beautiful month. Fitri is grateful for the month although she has to fast for 18 hours. Let us read how Fitri misses the beauty of Ramadhan in Indonesia. In addition, there are 7 other stories about Indonesian children. With beautiful and charming illustration, in each story you will also find questions that you can discuss with your friends. You can also find useful knowledge in this book.

Ilmuwan Muslim: Ad-Damiri Peneliti Binatang

Moslem Scientist: Ad-Damiri The Animal Researcher

Fika N.K & Ana P. Dewiyana

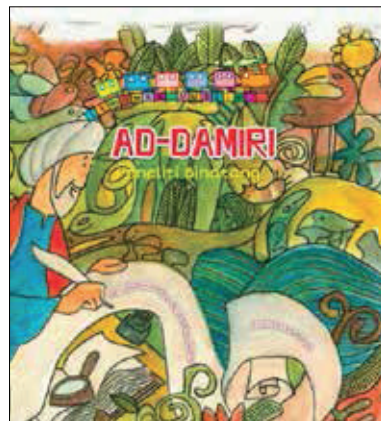

"This book helps children learn about the brilliance of Moslem scientists in history—the fact that they did not only master a single discipline of science, but also several disciplines at the same time.

The narration is written using effective and fun sentences. The book is fully illustrated using manual approach."

This book aims at introducing children to important figures in Moslem civilization such as Ad-Damiri, the Animal Researcher, that have contributed many innovations and achievements that led to the development of modern science and technology.

Ana P. Dewiyana has been an author of children books since 2002. She writes a lot of children books, both on her won and together with her team. Most of her books have been published by Pelangi Mizan, such as: Ensiklopedia Bocah Muslim/Muslim Kids Encyclopedia, Cerita Binatang Berima/Animal Stories in Rhymes, Tahu Banyak Tahu/Know-it-All, I Love My Quran (with her team), Wow Amazing (with her team), Dunia Binatang/The World of Animals (with her team), Seri Ilmuwan Muslim/Muslim Scientist Series, Pangeran Negeri Bunga/The Prince of the Land of Flowers, Putri dari Timur/The Princess from the East, Kisah Peniup Seruling/The Stories of the Piper, Keledai dan Seorang Lelaki/A Donkey and a Man, and Pemilik Dua Kebun Anggur/The Owner of Two Vineyards.

Aside from writing, she also works an editor-in-chief in Pelangi Mizan and a volunteer for various literary activities. She spends her leisure time traveling to the forest, sea, and old cities and towns.

Melangkah dengan Bismillah

Walking in the Name of God

Wikan Satriati

Melangkah dengan Bismillah is the first book of a series that we can call "learning Islam in a fun way for children". The series is written for 7-12 year old children, however parents may read the stories for younger children. The series is written by referring to one section of Islamic teachings and then retell it in the form of fairy tales so that children will be happy and joyful while studying it. It also encourages children to care towards others and their surroundings.

The first book consists of seven stories of Kalimah Tayyibah (good words); then followed by Gadis Kecil Penjaga Bintang/Of Stars and Prayers (2016) that includes stories on prayers; and one that will be released soon, Ahmad dan Domba Kecilnya/Ahmad and His Little Lamb, which is based on a story of prophet Muhammad SAW.

All the books are beautifully illustrated by Eorg, who had won a number of awards, such as: first winner of Wacom Speed Painting in 2012 and second winner at Samsung Kids Time award 2015.

Wikan Satriati is a graduate of the Faculty of Letters of Gadjah Mada University in Yogyakarta and works as editor of literary-cultural manuscripts and fictions since 2001. Currently she works as publication manager at Lontar Foundation, Jakarta, a non-profit institution whose primarily goal is to promote Indonesian literature and culture. She can be reached at wikan\_satriati@yahoo.com.

Ayo Mengenal Batik

Let's Learn About Batik

Ayu P. & Edith N.

Famous for its patterns and colors, batik can be made into clothes, table runners, bags, accessories and many more items. The term batik is derived from two Javanese words amba which means writing and titik which means dots. Thus, the creation of batik begins with drawing lines on a piece of cloth with a canting as the pen, and using malam or wax as the ink. Malam is not used to apply color, but to block its absorption by the cloth.

Let's Learn About Batik is a nonfiction book about batik aimed at children. The book is filled with attractive and colorful illustrations. Through this book children will gain considerable knowledge regarding the history of batik, the tools of batik making and the manufacturing process. They will read about the types of batik, the use and the care of batik and they will learn about places which teach batik-making.

Ayu P. and Edith N. are the authors of many Erlangga for Kids titles, including The Tales of the Princess.

Cemara's Family Novel Series

Arswendo Atmowiloto

In the fast-paced world where conscience is often swallowed by the daily struggles to survive, one family adheres the principle that honesty is the best policy. Though stricken with poverty, Cemara's family continues to live with gratefulness, kindness, and resilience. Cemara, the main character of this heart-warming novel, is a bright and lovely little girl who is still in kindergarten. She lives with Abah, the breadwinner of the family, who works as a pedicab driver and a handyman whenever needed. To support them, Emak, the mother, makes sweet grain snacks and asks her daughters to sell them around the village. Euis, the firstborn daughter, is in the 6th grade and has experienced the family's wealthy condition in the past, before they fell into poverty. The youngest daughter Agil is a sweet girl who puts a smile in everyone's face.

Cemara's Family is an evocative novel about family as a pillar of strength. Cemara's sweet stories show us that tears can actually be a sign of happiness and that there is always hope even at a time of hardship.

Arswendo Atmowiloto was born in Solo, on November 26, 1948. In the beginning of his writing career, he wrote in Javanese. He has produced numerous literary works. He has also won a number of writing awards. His experience in prison gave rise to several novels including Projo and Brojo, several Christian books, numerous articles, and a collection of touching anecdotes called Counting the Days. That collection was adapted into a TV series and received an award at the Indonesian TV-Drama Festival in 1995. The following year, The Too-Early Verdict, another TV series he wrote, received a similar award.

Dru and the Tale of the Five Kingdoms

Clara Ng (Author), Renata Owen (Illustrator)

Dru is a feisty, copper-haired girl, who lives with her family in a sleepy little fishing village called Patala. When she gets into a fight with some local boys, her mother sends her to her room as punishment. As she looks out into the water from her window, she sees a flock of giant butterflies heading her way. Without a second thought, she hops onto the back of one of them and thus begins the journey of Dru into the Five Kingdoms of the Dream World. Here there are Kuda Lumping horses galloping across the sky, a sleeping flower princess and a moving Forest of Hats among many other strange and wonderful things. Dru learns that each of the rulers of the Five Kingdoms has been punished by their father, the Pandu, and she must find a way to help them if she ever wants to return home.

Dru and the Tale of the Five Kingdoms is inspired by the rich folklore of Indonesia, as well as the epic Mahabharata, and infuses it into a brand new story that should resonate with readers of all ages.

Clara Ng is a multi-awarded writer, whose works run the gamut from adult fiction to children's literature. She is an acclaimed children's book author and her books are consistently found on the best-seller lists in Indonesia. With Dru and the Tale of the Five Kingdoms, Clara is, again, forging a new path. This junior novel will be a first for Indonesian literature. She is bringing elements of the timeless, epic tale of the Pandawas to the consciousness of the next generation in a fresh and exciting way. She is also giving a larger audience a glimpse into the rich and multi-textured culture of Indonesia via this world she's created and that should entice them to want to explore more of it.

Renata Owen is a talented young artist and graphic designer, whose work can already be seen in several national products and campaigns. Renata has an affinity for the classic Lewis Carroll book of Alice in Wonderland. Her thesis project was a richly drawn book of original poems that took their inspiration from Alice's adventure. Renata's illustrations also pay homage to the wonderful patterns in the art of batik prints and this is what sets her apart from the pack.

The Moon's Son

Djokolelono

Nono was scared, how did he get lost in the walnut tree? He just wanted to take his bike that had been leaning against the tree. Who was the mysterious black kid that lured him into it? Nono wanted to get out. Inside the tree, there was a different world. He had somehow entered the Dutch colonial period! That was not the worst. There were many other strange things, such as the beautiful blue-eyed girl who could turn into a canary, hordes of Black Ants, and the moon's son. What kind of world was this? Nono wanted to return home to his great-grandfather in Wlingi. But how could he go back, if he had to lead a war in this mysterious world?

Djokolelono has written children's books since the 1970s. He is the author of the science-fiction series Space Explorers, Falling into the Sun and its sequel, Black Star. This series was published in 1976. It is the earliest science fiction novel written by an Indonesian author. In addition to writing science fiction books, he also writes children's books, such as the Astrid series and wayang (traditional Indonesian puppet) stories. He is also known as a translator of foreign fiction books, such as Tom Sawyer's Adventures by Mark Twain, Choose Your Own Adventure series, the Mimi comic series, the Mallory Towers series by Enid Blyton and the Little House series by Laura Ingalls Wilder.

*The English translation of this book was subsidized by the Indonesian Translation Funding Program.

Weird and Wicked Series

Abductions by the Watercress Witches!

96

Ernita Dietjeria

Karin's eyes widened when she listened to the story Jitendra, her new best friend, had to tell. According to Jitendra, his mother was abducted by the watercress witches. So did Inggi, Jitendra's maid's younger sister. Both their stories seemed alike. Both women were sad, were haunted by nightmares which included giant green birds, both loved going to the watercress garden and both went missing after eating watercress from the watercress farmers.

Karin's eyes got even wider. Their stories was so much like her. She was sad because she didn't like her new neighborhood and she started... having nightmares about the giant green birds!

Karin was scared.....

Suster Misterius

Mystery Nurse

Alyssa Najwa Soraya

My sister, Yola, was ill. A few days ago, she was vomiting. Finally, she was taken to the hospital. Mama accompanied her there. My father was on duty overseas. I don't like to stay alone in the house, so every day after school I went to the hospital with Mom. But I was somewhat surprised by the atmosphere there. Every few minutes, there is always a long-haired nurse passes through this room. I wonder what she was doing. I've once peeked. But, she's just going back and forth alone. Who exactly was this nurse?

Alyssa Najwa Soraya is 12 years old when she wrote her first novel and was published by DAR! Mizan.

Horrible Tooth Fairy

Nurul Pertiwi

Jake never expected to experience the worst in his life. It's all because of Susan, the new student in his school. At first, Jake was very glad to make Susan the object of his ridicule. Yes, Susan's teeth are very strange. Jake even embarrassed her on her birthday by wearing fake teeth to imitate the way Susan talks. But then out he can't take the false teeth out. They're stuck permanently! What's more, the store where Jake bought them mysteriously vanishes. The horror can no longer wait to eat Jake alive!

Nurul Pertiwi was born in Jakarta, June 12, 1997. Her books include Rainbow Waterfall, Butterfly Castle, My Fairy Friends, Butterfly Castle 2, Pinocchio Girl, Cyber Friend, The Blue Candle, Alden and the Horse, My Lucky Coin, The Secret Castle, The Little Witch, The School of Stars and Summer Ghost.

Nightmare

Nurul Fajria

100

Since moving in to the new house, Velo has been curious about the empty old house next door. Every night Velo can't sleep, because the light from the room on top of the house makes her even more curious day by day. Then Velo encounters a mysterious girl who lives in the forest and a boy who always helps her. Do they have anything to do with the empty old house? Velo remembers something her friend once said, "Not everything in this world has to be known. Some are better kept secret."

Nurul Fajria was born in Kuala Tungkal, Jambi, January 19, 1998. Her published works include Chocolate Girl, My Annoying Friend, My Idol and Fantastic Island.
